Yasmin Waljee OBE

International Pro Bono Partner, Hogan Lovells

Yasmin is an international human rights lawyer, specialising in the rights of victims. She has helped shape the firm's pro bono practice so that it is now recognised as a leader in its field. In addition to supporting EIDA, Hogan Lovells devotes a significant number of pro bono hours to the Domestic Abuse Response Alliance. The firm is also contributing to the Angiolini Inquiry (an independent inquiry into the abduction, rape, and murder of Sarah Everard) and regularly provides inquest advice to families as part of its Advocacy After Fatal Domestic Abuse service.

Sam Beckinsale

Actress, Writer, Producer

Following a long and successful career in front of the camera and on stage, Sam was stirred into activism and advocacy by her own experience of domestic abuse. Sam is a Surviving Economic Abuse Ambassador, White Ribbon Champion, and a Safelives National Network Pioneer. She is also Patron of Broxtowe Women's Project UK and works with people and organisations worldwide to end domestic abuse for everyone.
